DYSPEPSIA.

DR. HUTCHINGS'

VEGETABLE DYSPEPSIA BITTERS.

THE MOST POPULAR FAMILY MEDICINE OF THE AGE!

Used by Physicians of High standing.

These Bitters remove all mucus secretions, purify the blood, give great tone and vigor to the digestive organs, & truly a system against all future disease, can be taken with safety, at no time debilitating the patient—being grateful to the most delicate stomach and remarkable for their chearifying, strengthening, and restorative properties, and an invaluable and safe remedy for the

DYSPEPSIA IN ITS WHOLE FORM.

Also, liver complaints, flatulence, heartburn, consti-

tiveness, tumors, disorders of the skin, liver and kidneys, loss of appetite, low spirits, nervous headache, giddiness, palpitation of the heart, sinking and fullness of weight at the stomach, and all other diseases caused by an impure state of the blood, liver, &c., which tend to dilute and weaken the system.

Persons suffering from a morbid and unnatural condition, will find this medicine of

INESTIMABLE VALUE.

In all cases of General Debility this Medicine ACTS LIKE A CHARM.

The following certificate is from an old gentleman who really acknowledges the Bitters the only thing that keeps him alive.

Dear Sir—I hardly offer you a willing testimony to your valuable Bitters ; I hardly know where to find words to thank you for the good it has done me. I would not be without it, on any account, and honestly believe that it is the only thing that keeps me alive.

I have recommended it to many of my friends; they all speak of it in the highest terms, which it richly deserves.

You are at liberty to refer any one to me as regards your valuable compound.

WALTER SIMONSON,

63 Fourth street, Williamsburg.

Read the following from an eminent physician:

The undersigned being acquainted with some of the ingredients of Hutchings' Vegetable Dyspepsia Bitters, and having used it for some time in his practice with every desired effect, he recommends this medicine from the certainty of its effect, and gives it a preference over all preparations in medicine for distressing complaints.

NEWPORT,

BY CRANSTON & NORMAN,
127 THAMES STREET.

TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 10, 1851.

Everything indicates that the season at Newport, this year, will be a brilliant one, and that a large number of visitors than usual will assemble here. At no previous season have so many private houses and rooms at the large hotels been engaged as this year—but there are yet accommodations for many more. Many families have already arrived, and all the hotels except the Ocean House, are open for the reception of company.

The Ocean House has been put in perfect order, and will open on the 15th inst., under the charge of John G. Weaver, Esq., assisted by some of the most popular hotel-men in the country. Beyond all question, Newport is the watering place of the country, and will ever retain its great popularity as a summer resort. We shall soon have the celebrated Germanians here, at the three large hotels, and they add very much to the attractiveness of the amusements at Newport during the summer. Those intending to pass the season here, should engage their rooms, without delay, if they have not already done so.

F—The New England Yearly Meeting of Friends will commence its session in this town on Saturday next, and continue through the following week.—The U. S. Circuit Court, Judge Woodbury presiding, will commence its June Term on Monday; there is much business on the docket, and the Court will probably remain in session some time.—The General Assembly will meet on Monday and continue through the week. It is thought that the Circuit Court may adjourn to sometime in July or August as many who have business before it, will also be engaged before the General Assembly. It will be a busy week, and the meeting of these different bodies will bring a large number of visitors to the town; and by the time they are gone, the summer crowd will begin to pour in.

F—We learn that the Artillery Company, of this town, instead making an excursion to Bristol, on the Fourth of July; they will leave here on the 3d and return on the 5th.

F—We refer our readers to the advertisement of Holman & Hill, 139 William street, New York, in another column. Those in want of any kind of Fire Works, will find a very extensive assortment at this establishment.

F—Persons visiting New York, who do not wish to stop at a hotel, can obtain excellent meals at the Globe Dining Saloon, by Kellogg & Wightman, No. 7, 8 & 9 Fulton Market. They will be supplied with all the delicacies of the season, at a very low price.

F—Booth & Foster, 27 Courtlandt street, New York, keep one of the most extensive wholesale and retail Clothing establishments in the country. A person may there obtain a complete outfit, at a very low price. See advertisement in another column.

F—On Saturday last a man, about 35 years of age, called at the house of Dr. Cummings in Roxbury, Mass., and stated that he was poor and wished employment. The Dr. told him to saw some wood in the yard, which he did; after this he went into the house and desired to dry his feet. He was permitted to sit by the fire, and after remaining there a short time, he jumped up and ran across the room to Mrs. Cummings and seized her child, about 3 years old, from her arms, and, drawing a razor from his pocket, cut its throat from ear to ear. He then attempted to kill the mother, but she escaped, with the body of the child in her arms; the man succeeded in cutting her considerably before she could get out of the house. He pursued her into the yard, where he was met by a man who stopped him. At this moment he brandished the razor in the air, and then cut his own throat, and dropped down dead. It is supposed that he was insane. It is thought that his name was Edmund Daggett, Jr., and that he belonged in Hope, Maine. Dr. Cummings returned home in the midst of the confusion, just as the horrible deeds had been committed.

F—It is said that Mr. Whitney meets with great success in England in the presentation of his plan for a railway to the Pacific Ocean. Capitalists stand ready to assist him, and the Government will give him all the facilities in their power. His new plan is to build a road from Quebec, north of the United States, direct to Puget's Sound on the Pacific.

Paradise—A Psalm of Life.
What the heart of the young woman said to the old man.

BY HENRY W. WORTELEY.

Tell me not in jingle,
"Marriage is an empty dream!"
For the girl is dead that's single,
And girls are not what they seem.
Life is real! Life is earnest!
Single-blissedness is sin!
"Man's the art, to man returned,"
Has been spoken of the rib.
Not enjoyment, nor sorrow
Is our destined end or way;
But to act, that each to morrow
Find us nearer marriage day.
Life is long, and Youth is fleeting,
And our hearts, though light and gay,
Still like pleasant drums are beating
Wedding marches all the way.

In the world's broad field of battle,
In the bivouac of life,
Be not like dumb, driven cattle!
But a heroic, a wise!

Truth no Future, how'er pleasant,
Let the dead Past bury its dead!
Act—act in the living Present!
Heart within, and hope ahead!

Lives of married folks remind us
We can live ours as well,
And departing, leave behind us
Such examples as shall "teach."

Such example, that another,
Wasting time in idle sport,
A forlorn unmarried brother,
Seeing, shall take heart and court.

Let us, then, be up and doing,
With a heart on triumph set;
Still contriving, still pursuing,
And each one a husband get!

JUST JUDGMENT.—Last fall we gave an account of a most brutal outrage near Wilmington, Clinton county, Ohio by which a poor man was murdered, in the presence of his wife, by some persons whose wealth and position made them presuming and tyrannical. The facts are these: A laboring man had a judgment obtained against him for a small amount, which he paid, all but the cost, amounting to about $2.50. On that sum execution was issued, and some standing corn sold improperly, it was said, to a person by the name of Robinson. The debtor gathered and cribbed the corn after it had been sold. Two of the Robinson's constable, and some six or seven other persons went after night to bring away the corn. They were met at the bars by the debtor, and forbid to enter, telling the Robinsons that their corn was all that he had to feed his wife and little children, and they should not have it. The party commenced taking down the bars to let in the wagon they had with them, when the poor man told his little son to go and bring the axe, whereupon he was set on by the party, knocked in the head and kicked to death in the presence of his wife and children. The son who hit him on the head fled, and has not been taken; the constable has since died of a crushed spirit; four of the others were tried last week, and found guilty of manslaughter. One of the Robinsons was sentenced to nine years hard labor in the penitentiary, another Robinson to seven years, another of the party to five years, and a fourth to three years. They were started off the next morning for the penitentiary, and arrived the afternoon of the same day in the penitentiary, where it is hoped they will remain, without Executive clemency, every day of their sentence. Three others remain to be tried.

As the parties are wealthy, we suppose the widow will recover full damages for the loss she has sustained by the murder of her husband at their hands.—We hope so with all our heart.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

WEALTH OF THE CITIES.—The property of Philadelphia is rated at $137,000,000; of Boston at $214,000,000; of New York at $288,000,000. Dividing the property by the population, each Philadelphian is worth $333, each New Yorker $556, and each Bostonian over $1500, making Boston the richest city proportionately in the United States, and probably in the world.

SMALL POX.—We learn from the Traveller, that the small pox is unusually prevalent in Boston at the present time, considering the season of the year. So far six deaths have occurred since Saturday last.

CONVICTED OF MANSLAUGHTER.—The trial of Stephen D. Carey, charged with the murder of George Heywood, the Depot-master at Lincoln, was concluded before the Supreme Court at East Cambridge, last evening. Under the instruction of the Court, the prisoner having been arrested by Heywood illegally, without a warrant, as he had committed manslaughter, the jury found a verdict for manslaughter, only.

This morning, Carey was sentenced by the Court to twenty years in the State Prison, the first 20 days thereof to be in solitary confinement. The prisoner received his doom with the utmost indifference of manner.

Mr. WEBSTER'S HABITS OF LIFE.—Mr. Webster was sixty-nine years old last February. During the whole active period of his life, he has risen very early, and does so still—often up before five o'clock than after it, and getting through more work before the majority of lawyers and statesmen have breakfasted, than most of the better sort of them do in the whole day. In the summer season, when he is at Marshfield or at Franklin, he is generally out among his fine cattle, for his pleasure and health, by four o'clock in the morning; and in the course of the forenoon he often walks more miles, with his gun on his shoulder, or catches more fish, than most young sportsmen can in twice the time. His spirits are generally fresh, and, for his years, gay, except when anxious about the business of the country; his external senses are unimpaired; he is as quick of hearing as he ever was—much more so than some men like to have him; and he can read the finest print, without spectacles, as he could at twenty. In short, his physical powers are preserved to a degree most extraordinary, considering his age; and as to his intellectual faculties, his marvellous memory, the promptness with which he can command all his vast resources, his wise judgment of affairs, his massive power—never so formidable as when assailed—all these are untouched, and fill with wonder all who approach him.

KOSAOTH TO BE RELEASED.—Advice by the steamer Asia state that the Cabinet of Vienna, in compliance with the reiterated requests of England, has at length consented that Kossooth and the other refugees in Turkey shall be set at liberty, on the express condition, however, that they shall immediately leave Europe, and engage not to return without the formal consent of the Austrian Government.—Washington Republic.

LADIES' COSTUME AT PANAMA.—The Panama Herald makes the following statement:

"We have seen, in this city, around the neck of a native girl, twenty-one American double-eagles ($420) linked together so as to form a chain. On the persons of two others we have seen from $4,000 to $5,000 worth of pearls and diamonds, with hundreds of dollars worth of rich lace, and yet, all were bare-footed, deeming shoes and stockings unnecessary to complete their costume."

THE FOREST DIVORCE CASE.—A decision in this matter was rendered yesterday by Judge Duer, who directs that a Commission issue for the examination of Ann Fowler at New Orleans; and that the respective parties, with Counsel, may be present to examine and cross-examine, &c. Should the defendant determine to be present, due notice must be given to the plaintiff of such intention, and she shall in that case receive from him the expense of attending, together with that of her companion. Proceedings in the case will be stayed for thirty days provided the defendant stipulates to take no step towards procuring the discharge or dissolution of the injunction restraining him from prosecuting his suit in Pennsylvania until this action shall be reached in its order on the trial calendar of the court, after the first Monday of October next; but unless such stipulation be given within two days, then this order shall not operate as a stay of proceedings.—N. Y. Mirror.

THE WEBB AND WILLIS AFFAIR.—Colonel Webb having failed to appear in the Superior Court yesterday in compliance with the order, the Court directed that the correspondence in question be delivered over to Andrew Warner Esq., under oath of Webb, in the presence of ex-Judge Vanperpool, who was appointed referee to carry the order into effect.—N. Y. Mirror.

A SENSIBLE PROPOSAL.—A "local preacher," who once said "he didn't like church parsons because they were book learnt," was recently conducting a religious service, and on opening the Bible unfortunately stumbled upon a chapter almost full of bad proverbs. He began to read as if he were a perfect master of pronunciation. Presently he came to a hard long name. He paused; he attacked it; he got into the middle of it; he went back and tried it again; at last he trampled right over it and then coolly said, "Let us turn, dear brothers and sisters, to an easier chapter."

THE VISIT OF THE PRESIDENT TO BOSTON.—It is intimated that the President of the United States may visit Boston on or about the Fourth of July. The Committee of the Legislature appointed to receive him, will probably be informed certainly in the matter in a day or two.

WEST POINT.—The total number of those who graduated at West Point from March 16th, 1802, to January 1st, 1850, is 1449. Of these, 611 are now in the service, 449 resigned, 248 died in service, 86 were killed in battle, 53 have been disbanded, 1 discharged, 13 dropped, 18 dismissed, 5 cashiered, and 7 declined their commissions.
